The xx: new album 'Coexist'

The xx have announced details of a new album (http://www.facebook.com/pages/The-xx/10429446003)

We're so excited to share with you the news that our second record 'Coexist' will be released on September 10th. After a long time on the road, we took a break, created our own studio and wrote these new songs that we're so looking forward to playing to you. We will be touring throughout the summer and beyond, and hope to play somewhere near you soon. xx The xx

'Coexist' has been produced by The xx's Jamie Smith and is the follow up to their 2009 debut 'xx'. It was recorded between November 2011 and May 2012 in the band's own studio in London.

'Coexist' will be released on Young Turks on 10th September in the UK and 11th September in the US.

The xx are: Oliver Sim, Romy Madley Croft, Jamie Smith
